

October 2003

Dear member,

We trust you all have enjoyed the lovely summer that lasted until the end of September 2003. The farewell reception for our Hon. Member P/M Robert Kilgour on 23rd of July was attended by about 40 members and guests, and Bob was very pleased to see so many. He left this country on 1st of August and is now settling down in Edinburgh.

On 18th of July we received the sad news about the death of Arne Wittrup our former appointed auditor. He was a member for many years, took part in the dancing classes years ago when Mrs. Mac was the danceinstructor and he was appointed auditor for more than 10 years.
