

September, 2004

Dear Members,

Autumn is just round the corner and it is time to meet and have a good time indoors and enjoy a good wee dram.

This is the reason we have worked together with the British Embassy in order for us to have a whisky tasting in the Cellar Bar (The British Embassy, Kastelsvej 36-40, 2100 Copenhagen Ø)

Friday 22nd October 2004
The evening starts 19.30 promptly
So you should arrive between 19.00 and 19.30
bringing with you some form of visual identification

It is vital that we receive the reservation-form in good time stating your full name/address and phone-number. If you bring guests we must have their full names/addresses and phone-numbers too – and you must remind them to bring some form of visual identification.

Security at the Embassy MUST have this information from the Committee in good time before the evening so please note the deadline – the secretary must have received your reservation-forms at the latest 14th October 2004.

We have asked Jimmy Milne to come and talk about the 6 different brands you are going to have a taste of – and also to entertain us. Derek Scott is going to give us a short talk about Glasgow-humour – so this will be a very exciting evening.

Enclosed you will find two vouchers for a free drink from the bar that evening (soft drinks or beers)

This is a "first come – first serve" arrangement as the number of seats is restricted – so fill in the reservation form today and send it to the secretary.

We hope to see many of our members that day – bringing friends along.
