

November 2007

Dear Members,

After a spell of a sunny but cold Indian Summer we all feel it is getting darker and colder by the day, so we need to have another cosy pub-evening with candles etc. So please reserve

Monday 12th November 2007 - Murdoch's Pub from 19.00 pm
Hotel Phoenix – corner of Bredgade and Dr. Tværgade, Copenhagen K

You can get meals at a reasonable price there, and a good pint and/or a great wee dram – just come along and feel free to bring your friends

Also the time has now come for us to invite you to our “yearly” St. Andrew's Night to be held

Saturday 8th December 2007 18.00 pm in The Faroese House, Vesterbrogade 17, Copenhagen K

As always we can promise you an evening full of music and dancing and a tune on the pipes from PM Kaj Larssen - not to mention that our old friend Yirdy Machar has promised to come along and entertain us in his usual fashion – so certainly an evening to look forward to

So make sure to fill in the enclosed reservation form and send it off to our Hon. Treasurer not later than Friday 30th November 2007

The cost for a welcome drink, a delicious buffet dinner incl. half a bottle of wine, tea/coffee and great entertainment will be dkr 345.00 for members and dkr 385.00 for guests

We now have a date for your diary for the first pub-evening in 2008 – so please now reserve Monday 7th January 2008

As you know Burns' Supper 2008 is to be held Saturday 2nd February 2008 at Restaurant Bellahøj

We can now reveal who our guest-speaker from Scotland will be, i.e. PM Andy Melvin, former Pipe major for Williamwood Pipe band in Glasgow. More information can be found on the internet at <http://www.pipingservices.com>.

So apart from doing “The address to a haggis” and “The Immortal Memory” Andy will also give us a few tunes on his pipes, so rest assured this is going to be a great evening

In the Spring of 2008 we shall of course have the Annual General Meeting and the Spring Dance and maybe one more event – dates for these events will be given in a later circular

In February 2008 there will as usual be The Copenhagen Winter Competition for pipers and drummers from Scandinavia and other countries with a recital given by the judges from Scotland. More information can be found on the internet at <http://www.the-cwc.org>

You shall receive more details in a later circular re. this event

To finish off this circular we just hope to see many of you at the pub-evening Monday 12th November and for the celebration of St. Andrews 8th December

On behalf of The Committee
