

November, 2004

Dear members,

On Saturday 30th October we received the sad news about the death of our patron HRH Princess Alice, Duchess of Gloucester, aged 102. Princess Alice has been our patron since the society was formed in 1949.

Friday 22nd October the whisky-tasting at The British Embassy went extremely well and was indeed very well attended. So well in fact that unfortunately we had to turn down members due to a limit of people allowed in.

Jimmy Milne talked about 6 different brands of whisky and entertained us afterwards with his usual good songs and jokes. Derek Scott gave us a talk about Glasgow humour. Plenty laughter that night. Thanks very much to Alan Campbell at the British Embassy who made this evening possible. And thanks a lot to Jimmy and Derek for entertaining us so well, and to the ambassador Sir Nicolas Browne for coming along .

Following the next informal pub-evening Wednesday 3rd November (Murdoch's Pub in Bredgade, from 19.00) our next major event will be:

St. Andrew's Night 2004

Saturday 27th November at 6.00 pm
at Det Færøske Hus, Vesterbrogade 17 A 1620 København K

Over the years we have found Det Færøske Hus to be a really suitable venue for our informal celebration of St. Andrew – Scotland's patron saint.

We start off with a welcome-drink, followed by a buffet with cold and hot dishes incl. ½ bottle of wine per person. Later on we shall be served tea and coffee.

You can't have a ceilidh without entertainment and we are very happy to announce that we have succeeded in getting Pete Livingstone to come and sing and play for us. Also of course there will be piping and Scottish country-dancing too.

This hopefully is going to be another memorable ceilidh where we hope to see a lot of members and do bring your friends along for this very Scottish evening.

For all this, members shall pay dkr 340 per person and guests dkr 375 per person. The enclosed reservation-form must be filled out and sent to the secretary not later than 18th November.

Some of our dancers are going to participate in a special arrangement Saturday 4th December in Baltoppen in Ballerup: The Kilfenora Ceili Band from Ireland. This will be a special dance event with both Irish and Scottish dances led by caller Pat Murphy from Ireland. He has been teaching dancers and called at ceilidhs for more than 18 years (ceili in Irish = ceilidh in Scottish language). For further information please call Baltoppen (44 77 30 60).
